Reasons to Pray the Holy Rosary

Leaders of successful companies know what they want and have goals, deadlines and concrete steps to attain those goals. Professional athletes, likewise, have a determination to win. We too, must have goals in our lives and the motivation to attain our goal...specifically, to get to heaven. One of the most effective means of attaining that goal of eternal salvation with God in heaven is through prayer...the key to salvation. As St. Augustine has said: "He who prays well lives well; he who lives well dies well; and he who dies well, all is well."

The Holy Rosary of Our Blessed Mother is a great start and a key to our salvation. Why the Rosary? Here are just a few reasons to motivate us.

Let's begin with when Our Lady of Fatima appeared to the three shepherd children. In every one of her six apparitions Our Lady said to them: "Pray the Rosary." She gave them good advice. It's interesting that at the end of her apparitions she gave herself the title: "Our Lady of the Rosary. Therefore, if Our Lady insisted six times to pray the Rosary and actually called herself "Our Lady of the Rosary," common sense tell us that she really wants us to pray the Rosary.

Then there's Saint Pope John Paul II, a great modern saint and spiritual giant who strongly encouraged the world to pray the most Holy Rosary. He himself said, at the start of his pontificate, that the Rosary was his favorite prayer and in his writing, "The Blessed Virgin Mary and the Rosary," he insisted that we pray the Rosary for the sake of the family which is under attack and in crisis. He quoted the Rosary-priest, Father Patrick Peyton, who said:

"The family who prays together stays together."

The Rosary is also a weapon against sin and as Our Lady of Fatima clearly stated the wars come as a result of sin. Sin produces war; prayer produces peace of heart, mind and soul and harmony among people. There is a great need today to solve the disorder that exists in the hearts and minds of people. Our Lady of the Rosary is also known as the "Queen of Peace" and her call to prayer can definitely help attain for us this peace that our hearts so ardently yearn.

Saint Pope John XXIII has stated that the Rosary is a biblical prayer and a summary of the whole of the Gospel, by praying the Rosary we get to know Jesus and Mary better...we fall in love with them and become apostles in a world marked with coldness and indifference.

Finally, we all know of the fight of David and Goliath. It was like an ant against an elephant. There was no way that this smaller shepherd boy could conquer the giant with a simple slingshot. But the Bible teaches is that nothing is impossible with God.

We all, as David did, must place our trust in God, especially today when we are surrounded by so many "Goliaths." We must constantly remind ourselves that our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth...and turn to the Queen of Heaven and earth and pull out spiritual slingshot, which is the most Holy Rosary, and win the battle. Jesus is the King of Heaven and earth and Our Lady is the Queen. Let us find sure refuge under her heavenly mantle.

Next week we will address the mysteries of the Holy Rosary.

God bless...Deacon Loris
